

2024 Echunga Preschool PQIP Summary

Goal To strengthen children's ability to hear and recognize patterns and sounds of language through musical exploration.

- Each educator will intentionally plan musical experiences related to language.
- All educators will use critical reflective practice and formative assessment processes to inform teaching and learning.
- Each educator to intentionally design musical experiences relating to language.
- Each educator will intentionally plan musical experiences related to language.
- All educators will use critical reflective practice and formative assessment processes to inform teaching and learning.